

Statements for 'Who are the lucky ones?' Cards

You receive your immunization against polio as a child. Take 5 treats.	You receive immunization against meningitis. Take 5 treats.
You have your eyes tested regularly. Take 3 treats.	You stood on a landmine and lost the lower part of your leg but you have been fitted with a false one. Take 2 treats.
You have broken your leg playing football but now have it in plaster and can walk using crutches. Take 2 treats.	You are visually impaired but your school has all the textbooks in large print for you. Take 3 treats.
You are hearing impaired because of an infection that you caught as a baby but you can use sign language and lip-read. Take 3 treats.	You lost your hearing because of an accident but have not yet learned to lip read or use sign language so you find it difficult to communicate with others which you find frustrating. Take no treats.
You are hearing impaired but have gadgets which help you lead a normal life. Take 3 treats.	You take part in road safety campaigns at school and in Scouts. Take 3 treats.

You receive your immunization against polio as a child. Take 5 treats.	You receive immunization against meningitis. Take 5 treats.
Your grandmother is blind so you read the newspaper to her each evening. Take two treats.	Your sight is poor due to a lack of vitamin A in your diet. You need new glasses which your family cannot afford. Take no treats.
Your mother is disabled and cannot do the housework so you and your brothers and sisters have work in the house and have no time to play - Take no treats.	You have broken your arm and cannot reach a hospital so your mother has put it in a sling. Take no treats.
You caught polio because you did not receive your immunization as a baby - Take no treats.	You were born with a 'club foot' and your family could not afford to have it treated as a baby. Take no treats.
You were in a fight and lost one of your eyes. Take no treats.	You were in a car accident and have lost the use of one hand. Take no treats.

You receive your immunization against polio as a child. Take 5 treats.	You receive immunization against meningitis. Take 5 treats.
You fell out of a tree and sprained your ankle and wrist. Take no treats.	You exercise regularly and eat a healthy diet. Take 5 treats.