

Activity Treasure Chest

Just a Minute

Purpose: To help Scouts to share views and opinions on a subject and organise their thoughts.

Development Stage:

- Identifying the Problem
- Developing Awareness
- Measuring change

Instructions:

- Topics concerning different aspects of the Gift for Peace are written on cards
- Each Scout in the group is given a card and some preparation time
- Each person then takes it in turns to speak for just one minute about the topic
- Once everyone has spoken there can be a discussion on the views expressed by the Scouts on the different aspects of the subject.

Alternatives:

- Topics could be given to a patrol to prepare with one person nominated to speak
- The Scouts could take it in turns to speak to their patrol rather than the whole group.

Equipment Needed: Paper (or cards) and pens
